Slaughter Pig Marketing Summary

This week
Trading for the short first week of the New Year was again pre planned, with most of the major processors keeping a tight check on numbers. Supply was generally in line with expectations, but possibly tighter in some places due to the recent cold snap curtailing growth rates. Contract contributions stood on, with one exception, and there was minimal spot trade. The fresh meat trade was very subdued, and under a bit of price pressure, due in part to cheaper imports being seen. Supplies of cull sow prices improved as we moved away from the festive period, and prices stood on. European market supply was similarly affected by the Christmas break, but prices were generally stable. The Euro was slightly weaker, and ended the week down 0.04p at 88.72p. Finally, on behalf of all the directors and staff at Thames Valley Cambac, we wish you all a very Happy and Prosperous New year.
