Quite a static week Germany stood on with all but one of the big British processors doing the same, one did take money out. Kill numbers remain higher this will soon cease to be the trend as 'Do They Know its Christmas' creeps onto Radio 2's play list.

Average carcass weight dropped back slightly to 91.86kg during the week ending November 2nd this is 1.5kg above the same week last year.

Continued settled mild conditions remain good for overall pig performance. With these mild conditions in mind good cleaning and disinfecting of pig buildings is as important as ever.

With Europe standing on the sow price stood on. SPP dropped back for the eighth consecutive week losing a further 0.53p/kg and stands at 206.61p.
