Trade, as expected, ahead of the last full trading week before the two shorter festive weeks begin, is about organising a plan to get all pigs placed. Therefore, helping get through to the New Year, which always presents its challenges in keeping everyone in the supply chains expectations balanced. We appreciate everyone's cooperation in helping achieve this, as in general at this point all pigs have all been placed as per requirements!

Slaughter pig prices have remained largely unchanged this week other than SPP slipping back a fraction, other than the few pricing arrangements which include an element of the SPP! Thankfully the German slaughter pig market has stood on too, however, a sizable fall has been sow prices dropping -15 Cents in Germany, taking with it 13p/kg out of our sow market across the main export sow buyers, who have on average offered a fraction over 50p/kg a long way behind the same week last year which stood at 1.07p/kg average, and even 2022 which had averaged 80p!
